The primary suite features a walk-in closet, oversized bathroom, and a private deck offering stunning panoramic views of the surrounding mountains.

The wraparound deck, finished with durable composite decking and vinyl railings, is ideal for hosting guests or simply relaxing in the serene outdoor setting. Additional amenities include a two-car garage with an insulated storage loft, a separate shop with a loft and ample cabinetry, an insulated storage area under the house and multiple outdoor recreational features such as a basketball hoop, horseshoe pit, shooting range, bow range, and a driving range.

Nature lovers and hobby farmers alike will appreciate the fenced garden beds, rose garden, established apple and cherry trees, grape vines, and a chicken coop. A full fire suppression system provides peace of mind, while the 75-gallon-per-minute well and automatic sprinklers ensure abundant water for the lawn and garden areas.

The property is a haven for wildlife, offering direct access to 200 acres of BLM and frequent sightings of elk, deer, bear, turkey, and more—making it a dream come true for outdoor enthusiasts and hunters. Seasonal Antelope Creek runs through the property, adding a picturesque water feature and enhancing the already enchanting setting.
